

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 812

By Johnson P

A RESOLUTION to honor and commend Daisy Hamblin, Board
Director of the Cheatham County Fair Association.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this General Assembly should salute those citizens who through their extraordinary efforts have distinguished themselves in their chosen professions and as community leaders of whom we can all be proud; and

WHEREAS, one such noteworthy person is Daisy Hamblin, Board Director of the Cheatham County Fair Association, who was recently honored with the dedication of the Fair Tabloid 2003, an honor most befitting such an outstanding and accomplished Tennessean; and

WHEREAS, born on April 14, 1926, "Miss" Daisy has loved the Cheatham County Fair for all her life; although she was raised in Nashville, she often visited her grandparents in Cheatham County as a young girl and cherishes the memory of helping her grandmother prepare vegetables to enter in the Fair's yearly contests; and

WHEREAS, in 1962, "Miss" Daisy moved to Cheatham County for good, and she has made countless contributions to the community during the four decades since that time; for many years, she served with acumen and alacrity as a health care professional, providing the highest standard of care at all times and earning the respect and admiration of her peers and patients alike; and

WHEREAS, highly involved in the civic life of Cheatham County, she has been a member of the F.C.E. Club for many years and has utilized her natural leadership ability as its President and Vice-President and President of the F.C.E. Council; and

WHEREAS, her involvement with F.C.E. led her to volunteer to work at the Fair in the Adult Sewing Department, and her adroit handling of those duties resulted in her joining the Board of Directors of the Cheatham County Fair Association in 1990; and

WHEREAS, "Miss" Daisy has since been an invaluable asset to the Fair, serving on and chairing numerous committees and earning a wonderful reputation for her ability to complete a wide range of special projects due to her commitment and diligence; and

WHEREAS, her excellence as a community servant of the highest merit was also celebrated in 2003 when she was honored as Volunteer of the Year by Sergeant Scott Nation of the Tennessee National Guard at the Cheatham County Chamber of Commerce Christmas Party; and

WHEREAS, her professional and civic accomplishments aside, "Miss" Daisy loves her family dearly and is the proud mother of nine children; and

WHEREAS, Daisy Hamblin epitomizes the spirit and commitment that are characteristic of a true Tennessean, and this General Assembly finds it appropriate to pause in its deliberations to acknowledge and applaud her for her dedication to her community and the state of Tennessee; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we hereby honor and commend Daisy Hamblin upon the occasion of her being honored with the dedication of the Cheatham County Fair's Fair Tabloid 2003, express to her our deepest thanks for her meritorious service as a community leader of unquestioned judgment and ability, and extend to her our best wishes for every future success.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
